

E is for Estuary

Estuaries are bodies of water that exist where the fresh water of rivers, streams and creeks meets the salt water of oceans.

F is for Frogfish

These lumpy, bumpy fish have a strange way of getting around—frogfish often choose to “walk” with their fins across the ocean floor.

