

I is for Ice

Sea ice in the Arctic is melting, putting animals such as polar bears, seals and walrus at risk.

J is for Jellies

Did you know that jellies are 95 percent water?
They move through the water by pulsing their round bells.

