

M is for Mangrove

Mangroves are types of trees that are found at the edge of oceans. Their twisted roots provide an important home to many different types of animals!

N is for Nudibranch

Nudibranchs are sea slugs. They come in all shapes and sizes, and many are brightly colored with beautiful patterns. Some even have spines, horns and bumps!

