

ALL WONDER. ALL MAGIC. ALL YOURS.

From the sandy shallows of the Chesapeake to the turquoise depths of Blacktip Reef, even if you've explored the National Aquarium's aquatic treasures before, you've never experienced them quite like this!

Schedule a private Touring Night for your group or company to revel in the award-winning habitats, the unique and fascinating animals and all of the wonder you'd expect from the National Aquarium—with none of the crowds! Make our main Pier 3 building yours and enjoy unprecedented access, moving along our Blue Wonders exhibit route at your own pace. Marvel at the abundance of species teeming throughout an Indo-Pacific reef; watch as sleek predators glide gracefully by in Shark Alley; enjoy the peaceful blue tranquility of the National Aquarium after hours!

Whether you're commemorating a shared success or offering your team a well-earned chance to relax and safely enjoy each other's company, the National Aquarium is proud to welcome your group for a private Touring Night experience beginning at $4,000 for up to 100 guests.

Plus, you can relax and feel secure in the knowledge that special measures are in place to prioritize your group's health and safety while ensuring that every attendee is able to enjoy unprecedented access to an entire world of aquatic wonder.

Contact our team at the National Aquarium at party@aquarium.org to plan an evening as easy as it is fun!
